About Us

Who We Are

College Now and Career Network leverages an innovative education platform and a vast network of online college programs and industry experts to help young people achieve their goals and vision of success.

What Service We Provide

College Now and Career Network – inspires students to enroll in college early or earn a career certificate from a top university while they are still in high school. The goal is for students to become specialized in a field of study and start earning money while they are still living at home with their parents.

Take Aim!

Who we work with

Parents, Student Clubs, School Districts, and Private Schools

College Now and Career Network works with parents and schools that embrace innovative education and understand the value of students' earning a career certificate from a top university. We work with parents to create customized college programming that will help their students stand out amongst their peers and get a job with a new verifiable certificate.

Sports Programs, Student Athletes

With over 25 years of athletic recruiting, we've built a network of elite Post Graduate, Junior College and Division 1 athletic coaches to help our student -athletes get recruited. Our recruiting platform provides coaches and parents with a clear picture of how their student-athlete is progressing academically, athletically, and with being recruited.

Our Program

College Now and Career Network is designed to inspire students to dream big and reach their full potential. We have created a variety of camps and programs where students receive age-appropriate guidance from industry experts, take online college courses, and attend high school summer college. Students also receive programming on personal finance and job skills that will prepare them for a lifetime of unparalleled success.

High School and Post Graduate School Enrollment

Finding the right school is one of the most important decisions your family will make. The correct choice will enrich and enhance your student's journey and can change his or her trajectory in life. Finding the right fit, however, can be daunting. That is where a CN2's consultant plays a vital role. We will help you find the best environment for your student's educational, social, and personal growth.

With an extensive network of top-performing private boarding and day schools. We can broaden the potential choices, and provide vital help in weighing factors such as cost, location, curriculum and athletic programming.

Also, we take into consideration issues such as learning differences, behavioral problems, and help your family identify the learning environment that best suits the individual needs of your student. We offer unbiased help in evaluating the pros and cons of every institution, understand admission standards and criteria, and help sort through the glut of information that can be overwhelming.

Programs for Ages 15-19

College Now and Career Network offers counseling services and college programming for ages 15-19 that enable students to leverage distant learning opportunities from top universities. Our students have the opportunity to obtain a certificate from a university and become specialized in a field of study, while they are still in high school. All classes meet weekly and are monitored by local teachers, professors, and industry experts.

We have more than 100 career tracks to choose from and work with students to help them identify their passion. Every student is different, but our plan is simple: we ask our students to dream big and we give them the tools to achieve success. Each student is required to choose a career track: Entrepreneurship, University Study or Military Service

Summer courses feature

Athletic Recruiting

Do you want to earn an athletic scholarship to play Division 1 sports?

As a group of former college and professional athletes, we understand the recruiting process can be overwhelming for students and their parents. Since 1995 our team of counselors has helped over 300 student-athletes get recruited and earn scholarships to attend college. We handle the entire college recruiting process for families including finding the right fit academically and socially for students.

Be like Kaylin West.
